

Devra Waldman

Departmental Address

Lucy Stone Hall
54 Joyce Kimer Avenue
B218
Piscataway, NJ
08854

Contact Information

1832 Vine St.
Vancouver, BC
V6K 3J7
778.835.5444
devra.waldman@rutgers.edu

Education

- PhD University of British Columbia
Kinesiology (socio-cultural studies), December, 2019
Supervisor: Dr. Brian Wilson. Committee members: Dr. Renisa Mawani (UBC), Dr. Michael Silk (Bournemouth University).
Manufactured magnificence in the 'Millennial City': The (post)colonial politics of a sport-focused gated community development in Gurgaon, India
- MA University of British Columbia
Kinesiology, Dec, 2014
Supervisor: Dr. Brian Wilson. Committee members: Dr. Patricia Vertinsky (UBC), Dr. Wendy Frisby (UBC).
Behind the scenes of sport for development: perspectives of executives of a multinational sport organization
- B.Ed University of Toronto
June, 2012
- B.P.H.E University of Toronto
June, 2012

Appointments

- Postdoctoral Fellow Rutgers University
Department of Geography, January 2020-December 2021
Supervisor: Dr. Asher Ghertner
Aiming for (the) 'green': politics and implications of the production of purified 'sport cities' in India

Publications

REFEREED JOURNAL ARTICLES

Waldman, D. (Revise an resubmit). Aiming for the 'green': (post)colonial and aesthetic politics in the design of a purified gated environment. Paper submitted to the International Journal of Urban and Regional Research.

Waldman, D., Silk, M., & Andrews, D.L. (2017). Cloning colonialism: Residential development, transnational aspiration, and the complexities of postcolonial India. Geoforum, 82, 180-188.

Waldman, D., & Wilson, B. (2017). Behind the Scenes of Sport for Development: Perspectives of Executives of a Multinational Sport Organization. International Review for the Sociology of Sport, 52(6), 651-674.

INVITED REFEREED BOOK CHAPTERS

Waldman, D. (2019). Gentrification. In H. Leitner, J. Peck, & E. Sheppard (Eds.) Urban Studies Inside-Out. Sage.

Loewen, K., Waldman, D., & Omstedt, M. (2019). Constructing a feminist urban political economy: on Lesley Kern's sex and the revitalized city. In H. Leitner, J. Peck, & E. Sheppard (Eds.) Urban Studies Inside-Out. Sage.

Waldman, D & Weedon, G. (2019). Postcolonialism and Purified Nature: Imagining Cricket-themed Gated Communities in India. In S. Darnell & R. Millington (Eds.) Sport, Development and Environmental Sustainability. London: Routledge.

Hayhurst, L., Sundstrom, L., & Waldman, D., (2018). Postcolonial Feminist International Relations Theory and Sport for Development and Peace. In Caudwell, J., Mansfield, L., Wheaton, B., & Watson (Eds.) Handbook of Feminisms in Sport, Leisure and Physical Activity. London: Palgrave.

Forde, S., Waldman, D., Hayhurst, L., & Frisby, W. (2017). Sport, Development, and Social Change. In M. Silk, D. Andrews, & H. Thorpe (Eds.) Handbook of Physical Cultural Studies. London: Routledge. Pp. 568-579.

Malcolm, D., & Waldman D. (2016). The Politics of International Cricket. In A. Bairner, J. Kelly, & J-W Lee (Eds.) Handbook of Sport and Politics. London: Routledge. Pp. 520-532.

Funding and Awards

Year	Award	Value
2020-2022	Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada – Postdoctoral Fellowship	$90,000
2015-2018	Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada – Joseph-Armand Bombardier Canada Graduate Scholarship – Doctoral	$105,000
2015-2018	Four Year Fellowship, University of British Columbia	$72,000
2017	Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada – Michael Smith Foreign Study Supplement	$5,400
2017	Mitacs Globalink Research Award	$5,000
2017	Graduate Student Initiative Top-up Award, University of British Columbia	$2,708
2016	Killam Graduate Teaching Assistant Award, University of British Columbia	$1,000
2015	Faculty of Education Entrance Scholarship, University of British Columbia	$7,200
2015	Faculty of Education PhD Award, University of British Columbia	$2,800
2013	Graduate Student Initiative Top-up Award, University of British Columbia	$7,500
2013	Vice President Research and International Graduate Student Scholarship, University of British Columbia	$1,500
2013	Holia Chow Memorial Scholarship, University of British Columbia	$1,500
2012-2013	Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada- Joseph-Armand Bombardier Canada Graduate Scholarship – Masters	$17,500

Conference Presentations

Waldman, D. Aiming for (the) 'green': (post)colonial and aesthetic politics in the production of purified environments in a golf-focused community in Gurgaon, India. Paper presented at the North American Society for the Sociology of Sport. Virginia Beach, Virginia. November 6-9, 2019.

Waldman, D. Architecture, aesthetic governance, and acceptable forms of citizenship in the Millennial City: An examination of gated community development in Gurgaon, India. Paper presented at the American Association of Geographers Annual Meeting. Washington, DC. April 3-10, 2019.

Waldman, D. Men, money, and calculated manipulation: Intersections of informality and exception in the building of a sport-focused community in the 'Millennial City'. Paper presented at the North American Society for the Sociology of Sport. Vancouver, Canada. October 31-November 3, 2018

Waldman, D. Futures in/of qualitative research in sport/exercise/health: postcolonial ethnography. Paper presented at the 6th International Conference on Qualitative Research in Sport and Exercise. Vancouver, Canada. June 6-9, 2018.

Waldman, D., McSweeney, M., Wilson, B., Hayhurst, L. Bicycles for Development and India: Girls' and Young Women's Perceptions of and Experiences with Donated Bicycles. Paper presented at the 6th International Conference on Qualitative Research in Sport and Exercise. Vancouver, Canada. June 6-9, 2018.

Waldman, D. Men, materials, and money: the development and emergence of a sport-focused gated community in Gurgaon, India. Paper to be presented at the American Association of Geographers Annual Meeting. New Orleans, Louisiana. April 10-14, 2018.

Waldman, D. Sporting symbolism, residential development, and postcolonial complexities: the building of cricket-focused communities in India. Paper presented at the Annual Meeting of the American Sociological Association – Culture, Inequalities, and Social Inclusion Across the Globe. Montreal, Canada. August 12-15, 2017.

Waldman, D. International property development, sporting symbolism, and the (bio)politics of space: the building of branded, sport-focused communities. Paper presented at the World Congress of the Sociology of Sport. Budapest, Hungary. June 8-11, 2016.

Van Luijk, N., Waldman, D., & Wilson, B. Experiments in 'Sport Journalism for Peace' (SJP): Reflections on Coverage of the Vancouver and Sochi Olympics. Paper presented at the North American Society for the Sociology of Sport Conference – Sport at/on the Borderlands: Translations, Transitions, and Transgressions. Santa Fe, New Mexico. November 4-7, 2015.

Waldman, D., Silk, M., & Andrews, D. Transnational gentrification, the new Indian middle class and the socio/spatial creation of cloned cricket communities. Paper presented at the Annual Conference of the Leisure Studies Association – Creating Leisure. Bournemouth, United Kingdom. July 7-9, 2015.

Waldman, D. Behind the Scenes of Sport for Development: Perspectives of Executives of a Multinational Sport Organization. Paper presented at the North American Society for the Sociology of Sport: The Sporting Arena – Academics, Activists, and Activism(s). Portland, Oregon: November 5-8, 2014.

Waldman, D. A postcolonial analysis of sport for development, cross-sector partnerships, and urban redevelopment: the case of the partnership between Anglo Indian and M.C.C./Lord's Cricket Ground. Paper presented at the World Congress of Sociology of Sport. Vancouver, British Columbia: June 12-15, 2013.

Waldman, D. Goal Girls – A Postcolonial Feminist Critique. Paper presented at the North American Society for the Sociology of Sport: Revolutionizing Sporting Bodies – Technologies in Practice. Minneapolis, Minnesota: November 2-5, 2011.

Waldman, D. Programs in Sport for Peace and Development: The Role of Women and Girls. Paper presented at the 5th World Conference on Women in Sport. Sydney, Australia: May 20-23, 2010.

Teaching Experience

2017-2019	Sessional Instructor, University of British Columbia. Sport, Leisure, and Popular Culture (Co-designed, co-taught).
2019	Sessional Instructor, University of British Columbia Directed Studies in Kinesiology
2013-2019	Teaching Assistant, University of British Columbia Health, Policy, and Society (1) Leisure and Sport in Society (1) Health Promotion and Physical Activity (1) Sport, Leisure, and Popular Culture (1) Sport, Peace, and Conflict (6)

Select Professional Service

2017-ongoing	Manuscript reviewer for International Journal for Urban and Regional Research, for Leisure Studies, Journal of Sport for Development
--------------	--

Departmental Service

2013-2015	Student Representative, Graduate Student Society, Faculty of Education
2014	Co-organizer, Annual Socio-Cultural Research Conference, School of Kinesiology

Professional Memberships and Qualifications

American Association of Geographers

International Sociology of Sport Association

North American Society for the Sociology of Sport

American Sociological Association